Builders' Notes

*“The Spirit of the Lord is on me,
because he has anointed me
to proclaim good news to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners
and recovery of sight for the blind,
to set the oppressed free,
to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favour.”*

Luke 4:18-19

Book Review of “Seeking Allah, Finding Jesus”

Nabeel Qureshi

Nabeel comes from a happy, close-knit and devout Muslim home. He recounts his upbringing and the concern of his parents that he should be brought up with a sound respect and knowledge of the Koran and conform to all the expectations of a good Muslim family and community. Nabeel explains in detail the beliefs and teachings surrounding him as he grows up, attends mosque and learns about Islam. He writes about the common ground between Islam and Christianity and is well versed in not only Islamic but also Christian Historical studies. When he is at college he meets David, a Christian. They form a strong friendship and, through many profound discussions over years, Nabeel has the opportunity to compare the two religions and, after many internal struggles, he makes the biggest and most difficult decision of his life—to become a Christian himself.

Hymns: AHB 80, 352, 385, Handout, 531

Sentence:

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: you shall love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.
Matthew 22.37-40

Collect:

O God, whose Son has taught us that love is the fulfilment of your law: stir up within us the fire of your Holy Spirit, and pour into our hearts your greatest gift of love, so that we may love you with our whole being, and our neighbours as ourselves; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.
